

Save the date – 2. Workshop on Sinter-based AM in September in Bremen

In this workshop we will discuss the development as well as challenges and opportunities of serial production with Sinter-Based Additive Manufacturing technologies along the value chain. Industrial specialists will provide insights into the topics "Metal Binder Jetting" and "Metal Fused Filament Fabrication" from the user's point of view. The program is complemented by the presentation of current results from applied research.